

WSP COURSE CATALOG 2026

The Woodward Summer Program

Arts and Humanities

WATER COLOR PAINTING

Learn watercolor techniques in our art studio.
Offered Week 1

COMIC BOOK CREATION

Write, draw and create your own comic book.
Offered Week 1.

MAKING MOSAICS

Use colored glass and stone to create your own mosaic art piece.
Offered Week 2.

POETRY WORKSHOP

Study different styles of poetry and explore your poetic voice.
Offered Week 2.

CERAMICS

Mold, shape, and paint your own ceramic pottery.
Offered Week 3.

WRITING SHORT STORIES

Learn how to write an engaging short story.
Offered Week 3.

ORIGAMI

Study the ancient Japanese art of paper folding.
Offered Week 4.

JOURNALISM

Help put together our Summer Program newsletter!
Offered Week 4.

Science

THE CHEMISTRY OF COOKING

Explore chemical reactions through cooking experiments.
Offered Weeks 1 and 2.

EXPLORING OUR ECOSYSTEM

Identify and catalog local plants and animals.
Offered Weeks 1 and 4.

GARDENING

Build and take home a miniature garden.
Offered Weeks 2 and 3.

SPACE EXPLORATION

Study our solar system with out-of-this-world lab activities.
Offered Weeks 3 and 4.

Technology

3D PRINTING

Learn how to print custom objects in 3D.
Offered Week 1 and 2

CODING WITH SCRATCH

Create an interactive story or game using Scratch software.
Offered Weeks 1 and 4.

BUILD A WEBSITE

Use GoogleSites to build your own website.
Offered Weeks 2 and 3.

DIGIAL PHOTOGRAPHY

Learn digital photography skills and photo editing software.
Offered Weeks 3 and 4.

Movement

SOCCER

Learn soccer fundamentals with small-group coaching.
Offered Weeks 1 and 2

VOLLEYBALL

Learn the basics of volleyball with fun drills.
Offered Weeks 3 and 4

YOGA

Stretch and relax as you learn the basics of yoga.
Offered Weeks 1 and 3

FIELD GAMES

Run around with friends as you play large group games.
Offered Weeks 2 and 4

Field Trips

On Friday of each week, we will be taking an educational field trip. Field trips this summer include but are not limited to the New England Aquarium, Blue Hills Reservation, and the Museum of Illusions.